

WILSON FINDS APPEAL OF QUINLAN IS NOT IN HIS JURISDICTION

Returns to New Jersey Authorities Letter Signed With Rubber Stamp.

President Wilson has returned to the New Jersey authorities, as beyond his jurisdiction, Patrick Quinlan's appeal for clemency under his two-to-seven-year sentence to State Prison for inciting to riot during the Paterson silk strike three years ago. Quinlan and his friends have protested that he neither made nor was present during the making of the speech alleged by Paterson policemen to have been delivered by him. This was reiterated in a letter addressed to the President under date of last Monday.

J. J. Farrell, Clerk of the New Jersey Board of Pardons, said yesterday that the Quinlan letter was signed with a rubber stamp, and the letter is officially declared not to have been sent from the prison at Trenton. The theory is that the letter was written, signed and posted by Socialist friends of Quinlan, whose application for parole was denied by the Board of Pardons at its last meeting, but may come up again June 15.

New York friends of Quinlan said here to-day that he had drafted, as long ago as Feb. 1, a second letter, as that made public. Monday. He planned then to have it in the President's hands Lincoln's Birthday. They added that Quinlan had had so little support from Socialist organizations in the past they couldn't believe this letter had been published under any such auspices.

Prison officials at Trenton made public yesterday an interceded letter from Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes to Quinlan, in which she said:

"The time is coming to fight the devil with his own fire. And they'll get all that's coming to them, and the public in Jersey will learn so much they'll never be amenable to their (the officials') manipulations in the future."

Mrs. Stokes said last night that when she wrote this letter, April 13, she thought she had "a lead that would bring about the exposure of grave corruption on the part of certain officials." She has now, she said, "found it impossible to follow out that lead."

Police Lieut. Powers Dies.
Lieut. William Powers of the East Twenty-second Street Police Station died late last night in his home, No. 68 East Nineteenth Street, after a brief illness. He was fifty-eight years old. Lieut. Powers had been a policeman twenty-nine years and was one of the most beloved men on the force. In the Gas House district he had saved by kindness many a derelict whom he aided financially.

"Ha, Drat You, I'll Get You Now, Old Corn"

"Wait till this pierce's corn plaster gets after that corn!"

The meaner the corn the more joy and comfort Pierce's Corn Plasters bring to you. All corns look alike to Pierce's—old, tough ones, and weet new ones, hard-surfaced ones and soft, tooth-achy ones—Pierce's Corn Plasters put a quick, sure end to their careers, one and all, great and small.

When you met a corn it couldn't conquer—money back quick if it didn't do the work for you.

Pierce's Corn Plasters aren't like other plasters—they are thin, light pastes that go nowhere after a corn without clumsy pads or smelly liquid. Just you try to day and see. All druggists have Pierce's Corn Plasters. Get a dime today and change to Waterbury Gas Co., 118 West 22d St., New York City.—Adv.

Hairs Quickly Vanish After this Treatment

(Helps to Beauty)

Science has aided in simplifying the banishing of hairy growths from the face, and according to a beauty specialist, the most effective treatment yet devised consists of applying a depilatory paste to the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered depilatory. When this paste is removed and the skin washed every trace of hair has vanished. Be sure to get real depilatory.—Adv.
